CAPTAIN- WARREN EAST

Captain Warren has been sailing commercial yachts since 1994, holds a 3000 tons officers certificate and has completed over 200 charters since he began his career. He has successfully project managed the construction and operation of several large catamarans and has built himself an outstanding reputation in the yacht charter industry, as a conscientious sailor and acclaimed host. His most recent position was aboard a luxury, 98ft catamaran that sailed in the Caribbean in the winter and the Mediterranean in the summer.

In January 2012, Warren and his partner, Chef Elizabeth Lee, opted to purchase their own yacht. Turkey, as one of their favorite cruising areas, was naturally the perfect place to embark on this endeavor and a traditional Turkish sailing gulet was the ideal vessel.

In 2012 they began converting her into a stylish, contemporary and luxurious sailing yacht, appropriately christened Turkish Delight. Captain Warren is amicable, charming and extremely knowledgeable. He will guide you through the Greek Islands or Turkey using his vast experience and local insight to keep you enthralled and enchanted every step of the way, with maximum safety and ultimate comfort.

CHEF - ELIZABETH LEE

Chef Elizabeth graduated from Kelowna University of Culinary Arts in 2001. She worked as sous Chef at a five star, fine dining, Italian Restaurant in Whistler, British Columbia's largest ski resort town. Following this she made the move into the yachting sector and quickly progressed as a renowned chef in the industry. As a yacht chef Elizabeth won various competitions throughout the Caribbean, including Concours de Chef and Best Chef of the Year.

In 2006, Elizabeth teamed up with Warren and together they successfully operated both a 73ft catamaran and a 98ft catamaran for seven years. This experience stimulated her to raise the bar and augment her repertoire by studying multinational styles of cuisine including sous vide and molecular gastronomy. She enthusiastically demonstrated her talents wherever she sailed. In 2008, Elizabeth followed in her mother's footsteps and began writing her own cookbook titled "Made With Love". The recipe book is comprised of dozens of wonderful dishes, illustrated through an array of stunning photographs taken by Warren.

As Chef on Turkish Delight, Elizabeth serves her guests a tantalizing selection of her gourmet creations, made with only the finest and freshest ingredients purchased in regional fresh markets and prepared according to guests' appetites and preferences.

Warren and Elizabeth promise to provide you and your friends or family with an outstanding vacation on board Turkish Delight. They are highly skilled, very knowledgeable, and genuine proponents of service with big smiles.
