Attitude

A close-up photograph of a fountain pen nib resting on a white surface. The word "Attitude" is written in a fluid, cursive script in black ink. The nib is positioned at the end of the word, as if it has just finished writing. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the ink and the metallic sheen of the nib.

Captain – Donovan Clark

South African

Previous Yachts:

M/Y FRONT ROW (26.5m)

M/Y KISMET (73.5m)

Interests:

Exercise, hiking and the ocean

Donovan grew up in a city called Pinetown in Kwa-Zulu Natal of South Africa. He spent his days at a private all boys' school where the fundamentals of respect, education, and camaraderie were invested in his personality. His background and experience at sea got him invited on as crew aboard his first Motor Yacht where he found his skills and education to be applicable in many ways and ignited his affinity for the yachting. Over the last decade, he has worked on yachts ranging in all sizes and designs and has continued his education in the marine field, recently completing his Masters 500 gt. Whether sail or motor, large or small, Donovan learned the importance of loyalty, teamwork, leadership and integrity. He is a natural explorer and enjoys the perks of his vocation and the adventures it brings. From navigating through Panama's rainforest, hiking St. Lucia's Petons, to eating the local cuisine of the Mediterranean, Donovan indulges in all opportunities to live life to the fullest. Donovan is committed to maintaining safety and efficiency with a fresh perspective and a keen sense of innovation.

Chef – Tracy Clark

American

Previous Yachts:

M/Y FRONT ROW (26.5m)

M/Y ANTARES (39.6m)

Interests:

Cooking and hiking

Tracy grew up in the beautiful Northwest in Bend, Oregon. She spent her days camping, playing soccer, skiing and spending the summers on the lakes of Central Oregon. She tried her hand at practically every sport, rounding out her high school sporting career with a spot on the golf team. When she graduated with honors, she decided to take advantage of the full academic scholarship awarded to her from Central Oregon Community College and two years later transferred with her Associate of Arts degree to Portland State University to study psychology. Working on yachts with her husband Donovan has given Tracy the world she dreamed of living in. She finds inspiration in the different cultures and environments she encounters and always tries to take something away from each place whether it be a new style of cooking or a foreign language. She believes in the balance of all things inside us and out and puts that philosophy to work in her cooking, management, and health, both professionally and personally. Tracy loves to cook, to eat and to live to the fullest! She loves to share her passion on board M/Y Attitude through her fresh ingredients and wholesome recipes.
