

Langkawi, Malaysia

---

Destination Guide

Sitting on the Andaman Sea northwest of the land border between Malaysia and Thailand is the divine archipelago of Langkawi. Comprised of a hundred islands and islets to discover during your luxury charter vacation, Langkawi is a wonderful gateway to both neighboring Thailand and Malaysia's West Coast. Sporting impeccably turquoise waters and a lush tropical vegetation, Langkawi is dotted not only with immaculate beaches but also those rimmed with animated waterfront bars and restaurants. There are also a number of luxury resorts serving up the finest local specialties and offering rejuvenating body treatments and massages.

Thanks to yet undiscovered coves, your luxury charter yacht will anchor off many secluded bays and you will explore perfectly azure and crystalline waters of Langkawi, where aquatic sports will be a sheer pleasure to indulge in. Arrive in Pantai Cenang, a coastal town home to a few top-notch resorts and a stretching powdery beach, rimmed with bustling bars. Or choose Tanjung Rhu located on Langkawi island's northern coast, considered by some as the archipelago's most awe-inspiring shoreline. With translucent waters, fine white sands, swaying protecting palm trees and an undisturbed land and seascape, stretching as far as the eye can see, a stop at Tanjung Rhu beach is quite inevitable. Guests longing for a bit of urban taste will be pleased to stop by Kuah, Langkawi's port of entry carpeted with beaches, waterfront promenades, restaurants, cafes, bars, luxury resorts and a number of duty-free boutiques.

Best time to Visit: November through March (Summer is hot, humid, rainy, and stormy)

Getting To Langkawi: Malaysia Airlines has daily flights from Kuala Lumpur, Penang, Johor Bahru and Singapore. From Thailand accessible by boat from Satun. It will be only 45 mins trip. Satun is only an hour ride from Hatnyai. Accessible by boat from Kuala Perlis (30 km) and Kuala Kedah (51 km), Malaysia.