

ELEFThERIA

A unique sailing experience

M/S Eleftheria means freedom in Greek. Sail with her and you will get the ultimate feeling of freedom. Sail in the crystal waters of the Aegean Sea, where places of extreme natural beauty can only be enjoyed while on-board. Enjoy the sea and sun, taste the Greek cuisine and enjoy the small things, such as the smell of the pine trees, the sea breeze in a cruise that will leave you with memories, that will be treasured for a lifetime.

ELEFThERIA

Sun Deck

Eleftheria offers the opportunity to experience the beauty and pleasure of “Mediterranean style”, outdoor living at it’s best with her vast deck spaces. There are endless cushioned areas for sunning and lounging plus lovely dining and seating on the aft deck.

The image shows the interior of a yacht's main salon. The walls and ceiling are finished with dark, polished wood. Large windows with white curtains offer a view of the sea and a rocky coastline. A white L-shaped sofa with dark blue cushions and nautical-themed pillows is arranged around a wooden table. A wicker basket sits on the wooden deck floor. A polished wooden bar counter is visible on the right side of the frame. The overall atmosphere is elegant and nautical.

Salon

The elegant interior decor enhances Eleftheria's main salon and more formal indoor dining area. This newly redecorated salon provides panoramic views through expansive windows and an ideal place to relax, listen to music or enjoy elegant meals.

Accommodation

The wide beam provides spacious accommodation for 6 guests in 3 recently renovated cabins. The master cabin has a queen berth and curved settee, two additional cabins have double beds, all with private bath facilities. All cabins have more than ample-hanging lockers and drawer space.

Captain: George Drivas

Captain of the motor sailer Eleftheria since 1995, George is a delightfully easygoing person, who is always ready to show his guests the most idyllic islands and ports in beautiful Greece.

A lover of good music, he makes the perfect selections from his large collection of CD's according to the mood and occasion on board. He is quite a capable fisherman and frequently surprises guests with delicious meals prepared from his catch of the day. In addition to enjoying free diving and reading, he is an experienced water-skier and takes pleasure in teaching guests to ski.

George graduated from the Academy of Cadet Officers, Proteus, in 1983. He has acquired a Class B Master's Certificate from the Merchant Marine and has worked as a cadet officer on cargo ships. He holds certificates in fire fighting, salvage at sea and radiotelephone communications. Speaks Greek and English.

Sailor/Steward: Keli Ibrahim

Sailor on Eleftheria for 6 years, Keli is a remarkable sailor, always strives to offer the very best service to Eleftheria's guests. Speaks Greek and English.
