

EMMALINE
AT ONE WITH ALL YOU DESIRE

WELCOME TO EMMALINE

Beneath the sun and the stars is heaven on earth.
Or, rather, heaven at sea. Where desires are indulged and dreams made real. By day, your private super yacht is a luxurious lido on the exclusive Riviera; by night, the most refined of restaurants.

At sea, at rest, at play, Emmaline is on the lips of all those at one with life's luxuries. Whisper her name with wonder.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

A single name can mean so much. Derived from the owner's Welsh family, Emmaline literally translates as 'peaceful home', and she's happy to play the perfect hostess.

Regarded by the privileged as the epitome of pleasure, she combines modern standards of luxury and comfort with traditional craft and care. Yes, attention to detail is at the heart of what makes Emmaline special, which is why all who sail in her love her.

AT SEA

Dutch designed and built, Emmaline is a beautifully balanced modern classic spread over 32 metres. With a lifting keel of 4.4m rising to 2.6m, she cuts a dash on the open water, yet can still slip into tight anchorages and hidden bays that would leave larger yachts floundering.

So wherever your dreams lead, Emmaline can take you.

AT REST

Time on your own or time with friends, swim, sunbathe, sleep or just dream away the day, and the day after. However you choose to relax, rest assured it will be done in the lap of luxury. If music is your muse, or you fancy a movie, our state of the art audiovisual facilities will keep everyone entertained.

While the readers among you can always lose yourselves in a book from our small but well-stocked library of page-turners and classics.

AT PLAY

When you are at anchor, Emmaline is fully equipped for fun. The more energetic will head straight for water-skis, wakeboards, inflatable sofa, stand up paddleboards and the swim platform. While full snorkelling gear is available for those of you who prefer to explore the world beneath the waves.

Truth is, we've got everything on board to help make these days ones you'll treasure for the rest of your life.

AT HOME

Just think of Emmaline as your holiday home from home, with extra little touches of luxury throughout. No detail has been overlooked or corner cut to ensure the experience of a lifetime; from en-suite cabin facilities to His and Her bathrobes, feather pillows to L'Occitane toiletries.

Even on charter our guests are guaranteed a 24-hour clothes-laundrying service, which we can extend to dry cleaning when we're in port.

AT DINNER

You deserve to be spoiled and trust us you won't be disappointed. Having cooked at many award-winning London restaurants, our much-prized gourmet chef is now wowing discerning diners on board Emmaline. Well versed in different cooking methods and cuisines from all four corners of the world, our chef takes pride in using only fresh, local produce and never serves the same dish twice. Unless, of course, they're asked.

EMMALINE

Crew Profile

Captain Simon Smith and Chef Sarah Powell

Sailing dinghies from a young age in the beautiful Lake District of England, Simon moved quickly on to smaller keelboats and racing yachts to feed his passion for the sea. At the age of 22 he was given his first professional command and has been Captain or Chief Officer on various 80 to 135ft sailing and motor superyachts since then. Simon speaks Spanish, French and German. His sense of humour, boutique hospitality skills and great eye for detail all contribute to unforgettable charters on board. Holding a Commercially Endorsed Yachtmaster Ocean with more than 80,000 sea miles and many weeks of successful charters completed, Simon's knowledge of the best cruising areas is considerable. When he isn't busy pampering Emmaline and her lucky guests, you may find him with a rugby ball in hand, sampling wines from a local artisan vineyard he has found, or simply catching up with family.

If you like food, after a luxurious trip on board Emmaline, you will love food. As a teenager Sarah won a National Cookery Competition which set her heart off in only one direction. She spent 3 years at catering college learning everything you could possibly imagine, and from here was offered a position in the Kitchens at Buckingham Palace after working there and at Windsor Castle. She declined the offer and travelled to the Far East and Australia, learning more about international cuisine, local methods of cooking, new spices and tastes which she now incorporates into her food. After successful seasons in the French Alps working for one of the most prestigious alpine ski companies, she migrated to yachts, initially as a stewardess to gain more experience, and then moving quickly into Chef Positions on yachts as large as 75m. Her knowledge of food in general is outstanding. She believes in using only the freshest of local produce to include as much variety in her dishes as is possible. When you can't find Sarah in the Galley, she will be hurtling down a ski slope, horse riding or playing tennis.

Dries and Stella, First Mate and Stewardess

Dries, hailing from South Africa, has been part of the Emmaline team for 2 years. Before that he worked for over 7 years on a range of beautiful sailing yachts exploring the Caribbean, New England, Mediterranean and most Islands and waters in between. Dries has participated in a lot of Regatta's including Antigua Classic's and St Barth's Bucket, he has a passion for wooden classics. His love for sailing and the great experiences he has had on board make him a very committed team member. He is also a qualified captain in his own right, and also certified to 3000T as Officer of the Watch. A keen diver and fisherman, Dries is also great with kids and has been known to hold the occasional splicing class.

Stella, is from Trento, Italy. She developed her passion for sailing on Lake Garda. Stella also has a medical background and contributes a lot to the overall safety of the guests and the vessel. She grew up in a family that loves traveling and has been all over the globe experiencing different cultures. She speaks Russian, English and basic German. She is also passionate about hospitality and cookery and makes a Tiramisu that should not be missed! Stella aims to provide the best levels of service to guests on board, especially the younger ones. Climbing, cooking and slacklining is among her hobbies.

Simon and his carefully selected team really look forward to welcoming you on board to start your relaxing adventure.
