

MY SHERAKHAN ITINERARY PROPOSAL CARIBBEAN 2011

This itinerary is especially written for MY Sherakhan. The cruising area is focused on a wide range of excursions, beauty, perfect beaches, nature, culture, history and fine dining. In this proposal you have the opportunity on almost all locations for all kind of exploring of the Caribbean. Think about a nice BBQ on the beach while you just had an amazing hike upon the beautiful waterfalls and rainforest of the island. We will be in Islands with less development up to the jet set place to be. This way you will see all the different sides of this beautiful area. Our priority is the sailing area is in good waters, safe and not too many distances so this is very comfortable.

The Captain and her crew will be in your assistance at all times and is ready to give you a holiday of a lifetime.

Please notice that anything in this itinerary can be adjusted to your own preferences.

Sint Maarten / Saint Martin

Day 1+2

Embark Sherakhan and be welcomed by the captain and her crew with a nice welcome drink and buffet. There is the delightfulness and soberness of the Dutch on one side, the savoir-faire of the French on the other, and the blending of both with exotic native heritage. Add dozens of beaches and lagoons, luxury hotels, elegant villas, and over 300 restaurants and you may understand why St. Martin is the most visited of all the Leeward's. All the great chefs, European, American, or Asian vie to compete in this gourmet capital of the Caribbean, creating cuisines equal to the best of Paris or New York. Shopping on the island is duty free and casinos, discos and night clubs stay open till dawn. There is something to satisfy every taste on St.Maarten/st. Martin. Good restaurants will be found here and loads of possibilities for a nice evening out.

What to do: Shopping, Culture, History, Amazing beaches, Fine dining, typical Caribbean food - music and party.

St Barth's

Day 3+4

Christopher Columbus first sighted the island of Saint Barthélemy in 1493. In Gustavia, the charm of a town with Scandinavian accents blends with the effervescence of a duty-free port with tax-free shopping. The neighborhood of Saint Jean is the most developed and touristic outside of Gustavia. The bay of Saint Jean embraces the airport as well as two large beaches with white sand that carpets the floor of this beautiful bay...Today it is possible to stroll among glittering jewelry stores and designer boutiques or admire the restored facades of a few handsome wooden and stone buildings that remain from the Swedish era. Le Ti St Barth's is a must visit recommendation as well as Nikki Beach for a lunch. Perhaps Eden Rock or le Yacht club would comfort your high quality visit as well. A lot of opportunities and even good fishing spots will be found for during the day.

What to do: Excursion in the Yellow Submarine, touring around the island, shopping and breathtaking beaches.

Antigua

Day 5+6

All the signs pointed towards Antigua. The island had warm, steady winds, a complex coastline of safe harbors, and a protective, nearly unbroken wall of coral reef. And so in 1784 the legendary Admiral Horatio Nelson sailed to Antigua and established Great Britain's most important Caribbean base. Antigua has a lot to offer, from one of the most beautiful beaches you will ever find in the Caribbean - Half Moon Bay. This island offers history with good restaurants and a success in nightlife.

What to do: Rainforest Eco-Tour with adventure and hiking and zip-lining through the beautiful nature, history and culture visit combined with fine dining, horseback riding and visit all the beautiful beaches, Shirley Hights - a evening filled with the ultimate Caribbean music and party.

Guadeloupe

Day 7

The Islands of Guadeloupe – Basse-Terre, Grande-Terre, La Désirade, Les Saintes (Terre-de-Haut and Terre-de-Bas), Marie-Galante- are known to be very impressive. Everybody that comes on the Islands you will be greeted warmly with a taste of “Ti-punch” and the sound of local “biguine” music. You’ll have an unforgettable experience, enjoying the wide range of activities on offer, both on the two large islands forming the “butterfly” and on the smaller dependencies. The four main themes of our Activities Program – Blue, Green, Cultural and Flavors – will tempt you to try our water sports ...

What to do: Amazing nature park tours by bus, hiking or canoe, beautiful diving and snorkeling spots, from adventure parks to nature parks combined with visits to the history and museums, local music and dining is recommended.

Dominica

Day 8

Dominica is located in the eastern Caribbean, between the French Islands of Guadeloupe (which lies to the north) and Martinique (which lies to the south). Dominica: Explore! Hike! Dive! Relax!

Dominica is known as the Whale Watching Capital of the Caribbean. Everything from river tubing & kayaking to spectacular diving. A unique & exciting way to explore the hidden depths of Dominica's natural wonders. Local food is known as one of the best places to have a typical Creole dinner in one of the local, beautiful places.

A visit to the rainforest either hiking or by tram, it doesn't matter. Dominica's nature and tourism can offer you all different types of exploration.

What to do: River Tubing combined with a hike through Layou Gorge River, Visit the local last remained Native territory Twin Falls in the Rain forest. Either go by bus, hike or tram through the nature parks and history of the island, in season go whale and dolphin watching - perhaps swimming if you have a lucky day.

Martinique

Day 9

Located in the heart of the Caribbean archipelago, Martinique is one of the Windward islands in the Lesser Antilles group. Martinique has a very rich culture. The island has been marked by multiple influences and cultural mixing; its eventful past is evidenced by its architecture, historic monuments and museums. In 2010 chosen to be the most romantic island, this island will give you not only beauty and romance, but loads of opportunities as well.

Fishing, diving, beaches, tourism, shopping, restaurants and culture. This island has it all.

What to do: Hiking trails are placed all over the island, Diving and Snorkeling is breathtaking, Lot of nature and history tours, beautiful beaches and the Caribbean local carnival music and food makes the nightlife very interesting. Visit the parks and gardens, wildlife and shop, canyoning. Visit the historical ruins, sea gardens and shops with private guide.

Saint Lucia

Day 10

St. Lucia is mountainous and lush, with many beautiful white sand beaches. St. Lucia offers excellent sightseeing and hiking. The many gorgeous bays offer plenty of room for all sorts of water sports. Starting in the marina of Marigot Bay for an comfortable hop on to the Sherakhan. We will spent the night in the marina of Marigot Bay where you can enjoy dinner on shore in one of the beautiful restaurants it has to offer. Edenic green jungles, dazzling beaches, a drive-in volcano: This lush isle has it all, plus the spellbinding twin peaks the Pitons.

What to do: St Lucian Heritage, Horseback Riding Adventure, White sand beaches, shopping, amazing restaurants, volcano and nature park visits to see the waterfalls, tram-ride through the parks, visit ruins and history museums.

Union Island

Day 11

There are many things to do in Union Island. Have a great meal in a restaurant, climb a mountain, hike a nature trail or swim at the beach. Don't forget to try one of the local rum concoctions! Union Island is famous for its lobsters and conch. Both Local and international cuisine are available. Caribbean islands all have their knowledge of rum - and as most of the islands Union Island has his own proud brand as well. Steel band music and West Indian music will be found everywhere. Enjoy the quite nobility of beauty and friendliness on this island.

What to do: Culture, local music and restaurants. Amazing snorkeling possibilities and white sandy beaches.

Grenada

Day 12

The 'Spice Isle' of the Caribbean, feel the history, nature and explore the coral reefs. This is the island of spices, exotic flowers and rare fruits. When you discover Grenada you will explore the friendly people, nature treks, amazing diving possibilities, sporting events, cultural celebrations and amazing culinary selections with the ability to make your Spice experience up to higher levels. Amazing nature and History with outrageous beaches seems to be paradise.

What to do: From Nature park tours, to cultural history tours and local markets, Diving and amazing snorkeling. This island has loads of possibilities, the beautiful Waterfalls and historical forts make it a must see.

St. Vincent

Day 13+14

Saint Vincent is a volcanic island in the Caribbean. It is the largest island of the chain called Saint Vincent and the Grenadines. It is located in the Caribbean Sea, between Saint Lucia and Grenada. Saint Vincent island is 18 miles long and 11 miles wide. There are places where there is just a rock that borders the black-sand beach from the white-sand beach. From the comfort of a bus tour to the challenge of hiking to the top of La Soufriere volcano, there are fabulous activities for everyone to enjoy at this world class island destination. Extra to this all, the local but good food is a recommendation from all people ever visited this island.

What do: Kingstown(capital city) tour, visit the historical buildings from the 18th and 19th century and beautiful nature, Visit the Parrot's from st. Vincent in their nature park, Waterfall tour, hiking, snorkeling and diving. Shopping and fine dining is a must do on the Island.
