Name: Christian Strunk

Position: Chef

Nationality: German

Description:

At the early age of 15, Chef Christian started his culinary training in an International school in Germany. After completing his training, Christian began his career working in some of the world's top golf clubs in the United States and acquired a love for sharing his gastronomical prowess with the world. After his exciting journey in America came to an end he decided to make roots in the 5 star hotel industry in London and Dubai. In 2009, Christian followed his dream and started working on a luxury cruise ship where he got to travel the world and explore all kinds of culture and cuisines. Christian thereafter landed his first position within the yachting industry in 2014. Chef Christian enjoys traveling and sports of any kind. In his time away from work he still enjoys cooking - especially for friends and family. Chef Christian is very excited to please you with his worldwide range of cuisine.

Name: Natasha Serfontien

Position: Sous Chef

Nationality: South African

Description:

Nicole was born in South Africa and her childhood consisted of lots of traveling and living all over the world. As a child, Nicole preferred sushi and foie gras to fish fingers and chips. Starting school in Hong Kong, growing up in the warm Indian Ocean in Durban, South Africa and ending high-school in Doha, Qatar under the Arabian sun. Exploring the world, experiencing cultures and tasting the best ingredients the planet has to offer became part of who she is. She studied Culinary Arts for three years at a prestigious academy, in the Winelands Stellenbosch, that has molded some of the best chefs in Africa. Becoming a chef in the yachting industry was the next obvious step for Nicole as she combined the two things she truly loves; food and travel. Growing up in a big family, a meal wasn't just about food, it was a complete experience and this is what Nicole bases her standards on. She doesn't want to just feed people, she wants to take them on a journey with every bite.
